

Gillespie Café

A Great Place to Land!

Roxanne and Peter Oliver

Proprietors - March 1, 2011

We are happy to announce our joining the family of companies at Gillespie Field. We wish Paul all the best on his new adventures and we look forward to meeting all the tenants and locals in the Gillespie neighborhood.

Roxanne has a long history in food service and deep family ties in El Cajon and East County. She has years in the hospitality business and is looking forward to making our guests feel right at home at the Gillespie Café.

Peter brings business experience in the promotions and festival arena with his involvement in the Gator by the Bay - Cajun and Crawfish Festival in San Diego. Look forward to an updated menu, a new coat of paint and some evening Special Events during the summer.

We are anxious to develop a new relation with our community and are interested in what you have to say. We want your visit to be memorable by offering a pleasant atmosphere, Fresh healthy food, great choices and good prices.

So please stop in and say Hi. We look forward to meeting you. Our menu is on our website. Call in an order and we'll have it for you when you come in.

Web: <http://gillespiecafe.com/>

Phone: 619-448-0415

Roxanne & Peter